

MEMBER REPRESENTATIVE (MEMBER AT LARGE)

The responsibilities of the Member Representative (Member-at-Large) may include:

- Act as the voice of the general membership at the CAB meetings.
- Act as an ombudsman responsible for the “health” of a chapter.
- Work as a liaison between the chapter and another organization that would benefit from a mutual working relationship.
- Explore various issues with the general membership based on questions posed by the CAB.
- Possibly conduct an annual job performance review of the chapter president and members of the CAB, as directed by the CAB.
- The member representative (member-at-large) may be asked to substitute for a committee chair during an extended period of absence of that chair.
